

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision forcing their member stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election does not serve the public interest. Documentaries favoring one political ideology over another should not be broadcast as news over public airwaves, especially free of charge. This practice is so blatantly biased, that the FCC should take preventative action.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.